ONLY TWO NOW

Semi-Finals In Ladies' Singles Decided.

Mrs. A. M. Brown and Mrs. J. Waterhouse are the Survivors.
The End Today.

A large company again gathered at the club house of the Pacific Tennis Club yesterday afternoon to see the semi-finals in the ladies' singles contested.

The gathering included Mr. and Mrs.
G. P. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J.
S. Walker, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. J.
Waterhouse, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mrs.
Widdifield, Mrs. Ballentyne, Mrs. Von ramm, Mrs. S. F. Alexander, Mrs. J. P.
Cooke, Mrs. Gibbons, Mrs. Fred Waterhouse, Mrs. Geo. R. Carter, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, Miss Bertha Young, Miss Carter, Miss Paty, Miss Schaefer, Miss May Hart, Miss Stein, Miss Roth, Miss McIntyre, Miss Elston, Miss Gertrude Scott, Miss Marion Scott, Miss Russell, Miss King, Miss Widemann, Miss McFarlane, Messrs. W. W. Hall, R. Anderson, D. W. Anderson, Irvine, Bottomley, McIntosh, Elston, Jack Atkinson, F. C. Atkinson, Dr. Nichols, E.
W. Marshall, Lansdale, Alexander, E.
O. Hall, C. M. Cooke, Walker and A. A.
Wilder.

Light refreshments were served during the afternoon by Mrs. S. G. Wilder and Mrs. A. M. Brown.

The play throughout was excellent, and the applause which greeted each individual exhibition of cleverness, un-tinted.

The record of the semi-finals is:

Mrs. J. Waterhouse defeated Miss Gertrude Scott, 6-0 6-1. The winner worked for points and displayed considerable head work. She played a steady, consistent game and showed a marked improvement from her previous exhibitions. She lobbed cleverly occasionally and her back hand strokes were forceful and much more effective than Miss Scott's, who is somewhat weak in this respect.

Mrs. A. M. Brown won from Miss Bertha Young, 6-4, 7-5. These were terrific games and the feature of the afternoon. Both players played tournament tennis and delighted the onlookers with an exhibition of the game that was worth going a long way to witness.

Mrs. Brown, who plays equally well at the net or on the base line, was sorely handicapped by a raw blister on her racket hand, and won the match by sheer grit. Miss Young's service was on the whole very commendable, particularly toward the conclusion of the first set, and evoked much applause.
Her head work was also worthy of more than passing notice. The record set ran, 5-5 6-5 at one time, and it was a case of touch and go to the finish. Toward the conclusion of the match the fair spectators could not contain themselves, and cooed loudly and long until the end came, signaling the same by one prolonged, well developed, hysterical shriek, which delighted the small trespassers on the club lawn, and nearly paralyzed with fright one of Payne's long-suffering mules which was passing at the time.

This afternoon at 4:30 o'clock is the time set for the final between Mrs. A.
M. Brown and Mrs. J. Waterhouse, and the game will be a record breaker from the word go, with the latter lady possessing slightly the better chance of proving the winner.

During the afternoon light refreshments will be served by Mrs. Joseph P.
Cooke and Mrs. J. Waterhouse.
Visitors are invited to be present.

POLICE FIELD DAY.

"Cops" Will Show Skill at Punahou Tuesday.

Next Tuesday afternoon, the mounted and foot police will have a field day at Punahou pasture. The mounted police will give an exhibition of their prowess individually and collectively, and will show the spectators what they can do in the way of stopping runaway horses and maneuvering under military tactics.

The foot police will probably be given an opportunity to display their marksmanship with the new rifles in a sham battle. Marshal Brown believes these outings at intervals are beneficial for the esprit du corps. There are a large number of new men, both in the mounted patrol and foot officers, and the Marshal and heads of the department are anxious to see just what the men can do. A large number of spectators will be present undoubtedly, as in the past.

Gill Gets Here.

"This is the first I have heard of my being the managing editor of the new morning paper in Honolulu," said E. S.
Gill to an Advertiser reporter at the Hawaiian Hotel last night. "I know nothing about the new paper nor have I any knowledge of politics in these Islands."

E. S. Gill arrived from San Francisco last night accompanied by his wife.
This is his first visit to Honolulu though he has planned and desired to come to these islands for the last ten or twelve years. He is a native of the State of Ohio, but essentially a western man, a thorough journalist and a hustler. In appearance, Mr. Gill impresses one as a man of force and many resources.

Death of Esteemed Woman.

Mrs. D. K. Kamaiohala passed away yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs.
E. S. Boyd, in her sixty-eighth year.
The funeral takes place this afternoon at four o'clock.

Your physician will be pleased if he sees that you have a bottle of the famous old Jesse Moore Whiskey in your medicine chest.
